

Name: _____

Directions: Please consider each of the statements below. Prior to the start of today's session, state whether you agree or disagree with each. At the conclusion of today's session, revise your responses where appropriate and use the space provided to insert comments as needed. This assessment will be used to guide our work together throughout the next few months.

Statement	Pre-Assessment	Post-Assessment	Comments
I understand what guided reading is.
I understand how to group readers appropriately.
I understand how to conduct an effective guided reading lesson.
I understand how to formatively assess fluency and comprehension during guided reading.
I understand how to document my findings.
I understand how to intervene when I determine where readers are struggling.
I understand how to engage the entire class even as I am conducting my guided reading lessons with small groups.
I understand what flexible grouping is.

I understand how to implement flexible grouping.
I teach writing as a process.
I know how to provide criteria-specific feedback to writers.
I require multiple revisions of each piece assigned.
I require deep revision of work rather than the correction of surface-level errors.
I understand what Cindy and Michelle's role is in my classroom.
I have defined my strengths as I begin guiding readers and writers. I've also set goals relevant to where I need support.
I know how to schedule a coaching appointment.
I have defined the constraints relevant to guiding readers and writers and established an action plan to overcome them.			